FINAL DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-3,5,7-12,14-15,17-24,35-36,38-39,41-42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Beach et al. (US 6,084,528).

As to Claims 1,11,35,38-39,41-42, with respect to Figures 1-3, Beach teaches a method comprising:

wirelessly linking a plurality of consumers and clerks or customer service attendants (customers) within a retail facility through a local area network based in the retail facility (Figure 1, label 20 and Col. 3, lines 34-40, 57-58); and enabling customers to communicate with one another via message requests (text messages) over said network (Col. 3, lines 44-56; Col. 11, line 57 through Col. 12, line 3).

As to Claims 2,12, Beach teaches the method of claim 1 wherein wirelessly linking includes providing wireless access to a server by a plurality of customers within a retail facility (Col. 3, lines 44-56).

Art Unit: 2645

As to Claim 3, Beach teaches the method of claim 1 including providing a processor-based device to retail customers that wirelessly communicates with said server (Figure 3).

As to Claims 5,14, Beach teaches the method of claim 1 including receiving audible communications from said customers (Col. 4, lines 16-24).

As to Claims 7,15,17,20, Beach teaches the method of claim 1 including pushing electronic files to customers (Col. 9, lines 1-19).

As to Claim 8,18, Beach teaches the method of claim 1 including providing information about the current location of a processor-based device associated with a customer (Col. 12, lines 51-52).

As to Claims 9,19, Beach teaches the method of claim 8 including providing information about the customer's location to the server (Col. 12, lines 51-52).

As to Claim 10, Beach teaches the method of claim 9 including pushing information to the customer depending on the customer's current location (Col. 10, lines 49-55).

As to Claims 21-24, with respect to Figures 1-3, Beach teaches a system comprising:
a processor (Col. 3, lines 45-50); and a storage coupled to said processor to wirelessly link a plurality of customers within a retail facility through a local area network based in the retail facility and enable customers to communicate with one another via message requests (text messages) through said network (Col. 3, lines 34-38, 57-58 and Col. 11, line 57 through Col. 12, line 3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 26-34, 4, 13, 25, 37, 40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Beach in view of Ogasawara (US 6,386,450).

As to Claims 26-34, 4, 13, 25, 37, 40, Beach teaches a method comprising:

Establishing a local area network in a retail facility; and

Provide retail customers with a terminal to communicate with said network,

Beach does not teach the following limitations:

“said terminal being activated by swiping a credit card through a slot in said terminal”

Ogasawara teaches mobile terminals with slots for receiving credit cards or IC cards (Col. 6, lines 26-31 and Figure 1). Having the cited art at the time the invention was made, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add device slot capability to

Beach's invention for exchanging information with a retail facility in order to provide shopping services using portable terminals.

5. Claim 43 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Beach in view of Kraft et al. (US 2002/0091568).

As to Claim 43, Beach teaches the system of Claim 41 including:

Beach does not teach the following limitation:

“a global positioning device coupled to said processor”

However, it is obvious that Beach suggests the limitation. This is because Beach teaches the identification of the location of shoppers (Col. 12, lines 52-53). Kraft teaches locating shoppers in malls using terminal devices having GPS (Figure 2, label 222, P0021, P0025 – lines 22-26). Since Beach and Kraft are in analogous art which identifies locations of consumers in shopping facilities, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to add GPS capability to Beach's invention for locating shoppers within a retail facility as taught by Kraft's invention in order to provide notification and help services to shoppers.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed in the 3/29/04 Remarks have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because of the following:

Art Unit: 2645

Ogasawara teaches that the IC card and card interface provides a suitable means for a customer to transport data (Col. 6, lines 19-25). This teaching shows that the IC card enables a customer to access a terminal by swiping the IC card. Therefore, the combination of Beach with Ogasawara is proper.

Examiner respectfully invites Applicant to contact Examiner to discuss possible amendments for overcoming the prior art of record.

Conclusion

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Swartz et al. (US 2002/0050526) portable shopping using terminals with improved order entry capabilities.

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event,

Art Unit: 2645
